PEACEFULLY IN DEATH SHE SINKS

Mrs. McKinley Succumbs on Sunday Afternoon.

Never Recovers Consciousness and Knew Nothing of Efforts To Save Her Life.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR FUNERAL

Canton, Ohio, May 27.—At 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon Mrs. William McKinley fell into the sleep that knows no awakening. The transition from life to death was so peaceful and gradual that it was with difficulty that the vigilant physicians and attendants noted when dissolution finally came. There was no struggle—no pain. Mrs. McKinley never knew of the efforts made to prolong her life.

At the McKinley home when death came there were present Secretary Cortelyou, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Barber, Mrs. Sarah Duncan, Mrs. Luther Day, Justice and Mrs. William R. Day, Drs. Portman and Rixey and the nurses.

The funeral arrangements so far as made are that Dr. Buxton will have charge of the services, which are to be simple. They will be held at the McKinley home at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

Secretary Cortelyou is directing the arrangements and will remain here until after the funeral. Dr. Rixey left last evening for Washington, to join President Roosevelt. It was announced that President Roosevelt and Secretary Loeb will arrive in Canton Wednesday morning to attend the funeral services. Vice President Fairbanks, who had often been a home guest of the McKinnleys is expected also.

Will Rest Beside Husband.
The body of Mrs. McKinley will be placed in the vault in the West Lawn cemetery which holds the remains of her husband, until the completion of the national mausoleum on Monument Hill, when both caskets will be transferred to receptacles in that tomb.

Mrs. Barber received numerous telegrams of condolence on the death of her sister. Among them were telegrams from President Roosevelt and Vice President Fairbanks.

Ida Saxton McKinley was born in Canton June 8, 1847. James A. Saxton, her father, was an intellectual, progressive business man and banker. His wife was a woman of extraordinary culture and refinement. Ida Saxton was reared in a home of comfort and ease.

After attending the Canton school she was a pupil at a private school at Delhi, N. Y., and later went to Cleveland academy, and finished her education at Brook Hall seminary.

Was Wedded in 1871.

While she taught Sunday school in the Presbyterian church, a young lawyer, William McKinley, was superintendent of the First Methodist Episcopal Sunday school. Among many admirers and suitors the handsome young soldier, who had been with Grant and Sherman and won distinction in the Shenandoah Valley was the favored one, and on January 25, 1871, William McKinley and Ida Saxton were married.

There were born to them two daughters, Katie on Christmas day of 1871, and Ida on April 1, 1873. But the heartstrings of the mother's tenderest love were broken when Ida passed away in August, 1873. Mrs. McKinley's mother having died the month before the little one was born Katie lived for three and one-half years and she then passed from earth. Then it was that the almost broken hearted woman failed in health.

From that time until his death Mrs. McKinley's comfort was her husband's constant thought. His first words when shot down by the assassin were to break the news gently to his wife.

Estate Goes to Two Heirs.

The estate left by the president was appraised at $216,000 when the inventory was made and has since increased in value. By the terms of the will of Mr. McKinley the estate at the death of Mrs. McKinley was to be divided equally among his brother, Abner McKinley, now deceased, and sisters, Mrs. Duncan and Miss Helen McKinley, of Cleveland. Mrs. Hermanus Baer, (Mabel McKinley) is the daughter and heir of Abner McKinley.

Death Mourned at Capital.

Washington, May 27.—President Roosevelt, Secretary Loeb and Admiral Rixey, surgeon general of the navy, will leave Tuesday night for Canton to attend the funeral of Mrs. McKinley. The news of her death caused general regret here where she had endeavored herself to hundreds of health always kept her from acting as hostess at white house functions, afternoon.

Colonel John K. Hendrick, Democratic nominee for attorney general, has returned from a week's practice before the court of appeals. He found practically complete harmony among the Republican up-state leaders on that choice. On the controversy which has arisen over the appointment of officers in Louisville, Colonel Hendrick thinks that Governor Beckham will have that authority as indicated in the decision of the court of appeals.

HANGS ON TO BALL IN SPITE OF BREAK

Plucky Cairo Player Meets With Strange Accident.

Makes Sensational Run and, Falling, Fractures Collar Bone On Both Sides.

IS GIVEN MEDICAL ATTENTION

In making one of the most sensational catches ever seen on the Paducah diamond, Eddie Dunn, second baseman for the Cairo Babsts, yesterday afternoon fell and broke his collar bone on both sides. At first it was not thought he was seriously injured, but an examination showed to the contrary and he was brought off to the city for treatment.

Dunn went after a "pop up" fly to the infield. He was playing far into the grass and came up fast. The ball was just out of ordinary reach, but the plucky little infielder jumped out, extending his hands for the fast falling ball. He clutched the leather sphere tightly, struck the ground on his right shoulder, rolled over a time or two and arose holding the ball. He could not work his shoulders right, and comrades ran to him offering assistance. He was taken to the grand stand but no physician was present. Near the park a doctor was found at his residence and temporarily dressed the injury. Later Dunn was taken to Hotel Belvedere and permanent dressing placed on the shoulders. He was taken home this morning at 9:30 o'clock.

WHO IS THIS HENRY DAVIS IN HENDERSON HOSPITAL?

Who is Henry Davis who lies in a precarious condition at Henderson, Ky.? is the question bothering officials of the Illinois Central. The man, apparently 30 years old, was picked up two miles south of Henderson with his skull fractured and in an unconscious condition, having fallen from or been struck by a train. The only means of identification found was a receipt in his pocket to Henry Davis. Local officials have been unable to learn his identity, and he is at the city hospital in Henderson, his condition being too serious for removal to the Illinois Central hospital.

He is today wearing many bandages about his face and head, and his eyesight was saved doubtless by his wearing glasses. Koontz was going to show how easily he could eat fire, and after taking a large mouthful of gasoline, applied a match. His mouth was too full, and when he went to blow a long stream of fire from his lips, the

MAD PASSENGER FIGHTS CAR MEN

Manager of Traction Company Investigating Report That Frank Clark Attempted to Throw a Switch.

A ROUGH AND TUMBLE SCRAP.

Manager John S. Bleecker, of the Paducah Traction company, is investigating an encounter Saturday night between Motorman E. C. Matlock, of the Madison and Trimble street line, and Frank Clark, of 1225 Bernheim avenue, at Eighth and Trimble streets, with the view of preferring a serious charge against Frank Clark, in the event the motorman's allegations are substantiated. They are that Clark in his fury seized the switch bar and attempted to throw a motor car off the track.

The trouble originated about 9 o'clock between Clark and Conductor James Keef, of car No. 9293. Clark wished off at Seventh and Trimble streets, but for some reason did not get off when the car stopped. At the Eighth street crossing, when Keef went out to signal the car across, he claims Clark assaulted him and knocked him down.

Matlock interfered and he and Clark fought, the latter being knocked down by Matlock. Then it is claimed by Matlock, that Clark seized the switch bar. Clark could not be found to get his side of the story.

Attorney A. E. Boyd returned from Wingo this morning.

DAMAGE IS DONE BY HEAVY STORM

Wires Torn Down and Barns
Unrooted in This City and All Over McCracken County By Saturday Night's Wind.

EVERYTHING IS REPAIRED.

A wind storm accompanied by a heavy rain lasting fully half an hour, visited Paducah and the lower end of the county Sunday morning between 2 and 3 o'clock, and did considerable damage to telephone and telegraph wires, unroofed several barns in the county, and blew down a number of trees. Blinding flashes of lightning lighted up the darkened skies every few seconds, and so heavy were the peals of thunder that a report of an earthquake visitation gained currency.

Every local and long distance telephone line between Paducah and Cairo went down, and all day Sunday "trouble" men were out repairing the damage. Telegraph poles were razed, and wires grounded by trees blown against the track. The Illinois Central wires went down also from trees being blown against them. Several barns were unroofed and at Sixth and Terrell streets a big barn on property owned by Mr. W. A. Gardner was blown down. By 6 o'clock Sunday night telephone lines were in good working order. The Illinois Central wires were cut in again within a few hours after the storm.

Sunday night at 9 o'clock another short wind and rain storm blew over the city. Many pleasure seekers at Wallace park started in on a long line of trailers to seek shelter at home before the storm broke. A majority of them got soaked to the skin. The storm last night lasted but fifteen minutes.

Visitors from Paducah returned at 9 o'clock, the train being delayed by the additional traffic.

REGULAR PIRATE ALONG TENNESSEE

Holds Up Raftsman and Secures All His Money.

Experience of E. R. Clark Above
Duck River in Which He Faces Loaded Shotgun.

HE GIVES UP ALL HIS MONEY

Helpless in the hands of a rough-looking highwayman in a lonely place on Tennessee river just out of Duck river, E. R. Clark, a raftsman, was forced to surrender all his money in the face of a Winchester shotgun Friday evening. He arrived this morning with his raft, which was disposed of to the Paducah Veneer and Lumber company and related the story.

Clark was collecting loose logs in the river en route down. He was pulling along by the shore when he met a stranger on the bank. In answer to Clark's query, whether he had seen any loose logs, the man on the bank replied in the negative, but stated he had some floating stuff such as ties, which he would like to sell. Clark landed and started up the bank to inspect it.

Turning suddenly after he had gained the other side of a barbed wire fence, the stranger presented a shotgun picked up hastily from the ground, and demanded all of Baker's money. The raftsman had but a $5 bill. The highwayman forced him to drop it through the fence and beat a retreat to his boat. After gaining the boat the raftsman was forced to pull to his raft. The last seen of the highwayman was when he dived into the woods.

Sandy Hook, Ky., May 27.—Judge Redwine declined to be present in the Hargis case for the assassination of Dr. Cox at Jackson. The Rev. J. W. Blackard, D. D., presiding elder of the Paducah district, filled the pulpit at the Broadway Methodist church yesterday morning. It was the regular quarterly meeting appointment for the third quarter and Holy communion services followed the service. Dr. Blackard preached a strong sermon on the theme "One Family in Heaven and on Earth." At the evening hour the Rev. G. W. Banks, of the Trimble Street Methodist church, preached in the absence of the pastor, the Rev. W. T. Bolling, from the 64th. Dr. Banks was a forcible presentation of the text "Render Unto Caesar's the Things That Are Caesar's and Unto God the Things That Are God's", and emphasized especially the lesson that Christ gave the world as a citizen and a patriot. Mrs. Will Clark was the violin soloist at both services.

MISS JULIE FLORENCE WALSH

WOMEN SUFFER

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing well that they ought to have immediate assistance.

How many women do you know who are perfectly well and strong? The cause may be easily traced to some feminine derangement which manifests itself in depression of spirits, reluctance to go anywhere or do anything, backache, dragging sensations, flatulency, nervousness, and sleeplessness.

These symptoms are but warnings that there is danger ahead, and unless heeded, a life of suffering or a serious operation is the inevitable result. The best remedy for all these symptoms is made from native roots and herbs. No other medicine in the country has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record of cures of female ills.

Miss J. F. Walsh, of 288 W. 26th St., New York City, writes:—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been of inestimable value in restoring my health. I suffered from female illness which caused dreadful headaches, dizziness, and dull pains in my back, but your medicine soon brought about a change in my general condition, built me up and made me perfectly well."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cures Female Complaints, such as Backache, Falling and Displacements, Inflammation and Ulceration, and organic diseases. It is invaluable in preparing for child-birth and during the Change of Life. It cures Nervous Prostration, Headache, General Debility, and invigorates the whole system.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free.

PADUCAH VICTOR
IN FURIOUS GAME

Grandstand Kept on Edge Until Last Inning

Past "Pabst" Team of Cairo, Meets Defeat at Hands of Reorganized Team.

MANAGER HOLLAN PLEASES.

In the fastest and most exciting game witnessed in Paducah this season, the Paducah baseball club defeated the crack Cairo "Pabst" team Sunday afternoon at Wallace park by a score of 6 to 5.

The visitors started out with three scores to the good, made in the third and fifth innings before Paducah had scored, but the locals in the fifth inning scored four runs. In the seventh the visitors scored two more on errors, and until the ninth when Paducah by hard, clean hitting won out, the grand stand was keyed up to a high pitch of excitement. The game was cleanly played and fully 200 fans were out to witness it. The excursion on the Louisiana carried out of town many fans, but the management cleared something over expenses.

The visitors have one or two weak places, but played a star game as a team. The hitting was weak but several long drives were made. Of the Paducah players who did good work with the stick, are Robertson, Block, Plumlee, Cooper, Murray and Bergdoll. Bergdoll played a good field, pulling down one of the prettiest flies hit during the game, and undoubtedly saving the game with the sensational play.

The score:

Innings 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9—r h e
Paducah 0 0 0 4 0 0 0 1—6 7 4
Pabst 0 0 2 0 1 0 2 0 0—5 5 5

Batteries—Brahic and Block;
French and Hilburn. Gus Brahic, umpire.

Manager John Hollan received letters from Princeton, Ky., and Mound City, Ill., this morning. Princeton will open the season with Metropolis at that city June 9, and is booked solid to June 30. The Mound City team refuses a date for June 2 here. Manager Hollan has several other teams on the string, two from St. Louis and one from Nashville, and will have a game here Sunday.

Manager Hollan yesterday demonstrated that he can get up a good team and give Paducah a fast article of ball. The team played together yesterday for the first time this season. With a little team work it will beat anything in the semi-professional class in this section.

Yesterday's line-up was:
Paducah—Block, c.; Brahic, p.; Hessian, 1b.; Murray, 2b.; Cooper, 3b.; Robertson, ss.; Bergdoll, lf.; Plumlee, cf.; Hart, rf.
Pabst—Hilburn, c.; French, p.; Vest, 1b.; Scott, cf.; Stout, 3b.; Dunn, 2b.; Morgan, 2b.; Judy, lf.; Carney, rf.; Powers, cf.; and ss.

Baseball fans will receive news of a cut in prices to the ball park with much pleasure. Manager John Hollan announced this morning that he would charge 15 cents admission to the park with 10 cents addition for the grand stand, which will be held as "reserved seats." Ladies will be admitted free of charge to all games.

Catarrh of the Stomach

MRS. MARY A. RUCH.

After years of suffering from catarrh of the stomach which was so acute that she could not sleep, Mrs. Mary A. Ruch, of Burlington, Kansas, was completely cured by Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

Mrs. Ruch, who is in her 70th year, says she cannot say too much in praise of this great medicine which restored her to health and she recommends it to everyone who suffers from catarrhal trouble or general debility.

"It gives me great pleasure to recommend your pure malt whiskey for catarrh of the stomach. I was troubled for some years, could not sleep on account of hawking and spitting. When I took your malt whiskey I commenced to rest and broke up a severe clinging cold, which had lasted for weeks, in a very short time. I think there is nothing better. I am opposed to and never could take any key, but Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey tastes so different from any other I cheerfully recommend it to all in need of a tonic or for any of the above complaints. I am 69 years of age. With thanks, I am, MARY A. RUCH, Burlington, Kansas, Jan. 28th, 1907."

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is distilled wholly from malted grain by a most expensive method which has never been made public and this private process insures quality and flavor. Its age, softness, palatability and freedom from those injurious substances found in other whiskeys make it acceptable to the most sensitive stomach.

It acts as an antitoxin which destroys and drives out all disease germs. Its results are free from that depressing effect caused by poisoning the blood with many medicines. It is a tonic and invigorant for old and young, and its medicinal properties make it invaluable to overworked men, delicate women and sickly children. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has been analyzed many times by the best chemists during the past fifty years and has always been found to be absolutely pure.

CAUTION.—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It's the only absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey and is sold in sealed bottles only, never in bulk. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken and that our guarantee is on every bottle. Price $1.00. Illustrated medical booklet and doctor's advice free. Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

If you suffer from backache—From urinary disorders—From any disease of the kidneys, Be cured to stay cured. Doan's Kidney Pills make lasting cures.

Paducah people testify. Here's one case of it: Mrs. George Romain, 2233 Meyer street, Paducah, Ky., says: "I have been a sufferer for a long time from a general complication of kidney troubles. I was bothered with an aching back and lameness in my shoulders and never without a pain of some sort even for a single day. I used a great deal of medicine but never got anything that pleased and relieved me so much as Doan's Kidney Pills which I procured at Avey & List's drug store after learning how they had helped me and they certainly did for I now feel as well as I ever did. They are also easy to take and seem to cure without giving any ill effects." (From statement given in 1900.)

A Permanent Cure.

On February 18, Mrs. Romain said: "I made a statement for publication several years ago telling of the great benefits I had received from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Now after a lapse of seven years I am glad to say that I have not had an attack since, so I have every reason to believe they effected a permanent cure."

NEWS OF KENTUCKY

Cantrill Family Retient.

Georgetown, Ky., May 27.—There is a general reticence in the inner circles about the circulated report of Judge James E. Cantrill's resignation from the appellate bench. Mrs. Cantrill said today: "I have just returned from an automobile trip and have not talked with the judge, but I feel sure that this is nothing more than the same rumor that has long been afloat."

Post D. T. P. A. Opposed to Rebates.

Louisville, May 27.—A feature of the monthly meeting of Post D, Travelers' Protective Association, which was held last night at the Galt House, was the adoption of a resolution presented by Edward Altscheler, putting the post on record as being opposed to the granting of rebates by commercial travelers. It was pointed out that the practice of rebating by the commercial representatives had grown to alarming proportions during the last few years. Usually the firm or corporation which the traveler represents is responsible for the condition, and efforts are being made by the various lodges of the association to put an end to the practice by appealing to the commercial houses. Similar resolutions have been adopted by other lodges of the order.

No Trip For Militia.

Frankfort, Ky., May 27.—It was announced today at the department of the adjutant general that the chances are very slim for the state guard encampment to be held at the Jamestown Exposition this summer, as has been contemplated. The reason assigned for this compulsory change of plan is that the railroads have fixed transportation rates for the militiamen which are totally beyond the reach of the amount available for the purpose, and are considered unreasonable and excessive. It is expected that much disappointment will be felt in state guard circles, but the department feels that it has done the best it could. The effect of this news was felt here at the capital today, where a new militia company was to have been mustered into the service by Captain Longmire. News that the Jamestown trip is off got out, and not a man showed up to sign the muster roll, and Ed Porter Thompson, who was to have been captain, has given up the idea of organizing a company.

suits we have had in our store in many a day. They are not only the newest things for immediate wear but full of promise to be the strongest numbers and styles for the coming season. The materials used are light shades of light weight Panama in dainty, neat little stripes and small checks---materials which are affected in the east by women who know what they are about.

But we shall not attempt any detailed description, for they are on display in our windows, a few of them, and you can see the snappy styles for yourselves. Whether you go away or whether you stay at home, you will have to have a spring or summer suit. You can wear the elegant little coat for a wrap, because it is cut and made by New York's best tailors and is sumptuously lined with Peau de Chine. The skirts, which are beautifully tailored, will be wonderfully serviceable for shirt waist wear.

A charge will be made for any alterations which may be necessary; we couldn't afford to do otherwise at the price.

And in order to make this sale of still greater importance, we have added to this lot our best Eton styles---suits that sold for $35.00 to $50.00---but the price is just the same as the others---

Your Choice for $19.98

Of course, most anybody will understand that in order to accomplish success in a sale of this kind we must have cash. Bring the money with you---it's only $19.98---and we know you will feel fully repaid in securing one of these strikingly handsome suits.

The sale started this morning and will be continued throughout this week, but it is well to remember that, with such a lot of suits as these are, selections are apt to be rather limited in three or four days. So come early and get the choice of 150 suits, instead of waiting until you have the choice of only fifteen or twenty.

Daily Thought.

There is more hope for a fool than for the man who thinks he knows it all.

THE PRICE OF TREASON.

In the news that six millionaires are numbered among those indicted for bribery in San Francisco we find hope and encouragement for the work of reform. Not that we harbor any malice toward the very rich as a class, not that we have any feeling that would prompt us to see anyone punished merely because he is thrifty, not even, because we think the very rich deserve some rebuke; but because in the very nature of the offense with which Ruef and Schmitz are charged, some great private interests and some wealthy private citizens must be involved in a still higher degree.

No doubt the cities are full of blackmailing politicians who attain power for no reason other than to "hold-up" corporations and wealthy citizens and compel them to ransom their interests from persecution.

But, if this is true, it is simply the old, old story of "sowing the wind and reaping the whirlwind." Politicians—legal departments have been employed to nominate and elect to office men, who are susceptible to bribes. Professional lobbyists have been retained to purchase advantages and immunities for special interests. All have not been guilty, but all have suffered. Lobbyists, as thrifty as their employers, have turned politicians, acquired power with the money furnished by the interests, and now levy tribute on their former masters, not only for advantageous legislation, but even for freedom from legislative abuse.

Unfortunately too many of these interests have submitted to the extortion. If now the heads of some of them must go to the penitentiary for their share in this treasonable conduct, well and good, the prison will become the more famous for such illustrious associations.

No man and no interest need ever stoop to the depths of bribery to secure justice and all that rightfully belongs to him. Direct, honest appeal to the public will gain all that is due. It is only for special advantages and discriminating immunity that the price has to be paid; and some of San Francisco's millionaires are learning now that the price is not measured in dollars and cents. There is an offended God and an offended country to be reckoned with, besides the Ruefs and the Schmitzs.

Did the wealthy interests refuse to be a party to the crime, there would be no such debauchery in our municipal politics, and it is only a matter of time when the parasite of debauchery born in our municipal politics, will extend to state and national affairs, and then involve us in all our relations in life. Those who do not participate in such crimes, tolerate them, and thereby become parties to them.

It is the wealth of the country ready to pay the price, that attracts the Ruefs to politics. Eliminate the source of graft and the grafters will die politically. There is a growing feeling that money renders a man immune from punishment. These political grafters feel secure, because they know the wealthy are as deeply involved as they, and they think wealth will protect them to protect itself. San Francisco, apparently, is about to add her examples to those of St. Louis.

These millionaires of San Francisco are guilty of a graver crime than that of merely bribing men to disregard their duty. They are guilty of treason, loathsome, cowardly treason. We have much more respect for the assassin, who larks in the dark to slay his victim, than for the coward, who hires him to do it. We have more respect for a Benedict Arnold, who deliberately betrays his country through pique, than for a San Francisco millionaire, who not only sells his country, but sells his children's birthright of freedom for a franchise potage. The former is a thin-skinned aristocrat. The latter is a fool, as well as a villain.

Maybe the interstate commerce commission will recommend the enforcement of "reciprocal demerage" between passengers and Pullman car porters.

In spite of the exposures of manipulated stock, of recent crashes in the markets, of the tricks of bulls and bears, of the game of "puts and calls," New York estimates put the stakes on the Chicago wheat market during the big bull movement at $200,000,000, the heaviest betting ever recorded.

A LESSON IN PATRIOTISM.

Perhaps, even those who did it, did not realize the immediate effect of their conduct at the time, but when the children in festival chorus sang the national anthem and the audience in the grand stand stood up with heads uncovered, it was an object lesson in patriotism that must have impressed the singers. These outward tokens of respect for country and reverence for religion are apparently little things, but they indicate the sentiment that lives in the heart. There can be no true patriotism that doesn't venerate the country and all that pertains to it. The time to teach that sentiment is in youth. When those boys and girls learn to attach a sentiment to the national anthem, that makes their hearts throb at its sound and makes them fight for the honor of the flag, then they have true patriotism. We did not fight and suffer to win freedom and we don't half appreciate it; but we of the great Mississippi valley have a duty in patriotism to perform in this and the next generation as important as the war waged by patriots of the revolution. We have no foreign foe to meet, but we have predatory wealth on the one hand, and the mob on the other, and between these two forces, both equally inimical to our institutions, we must take our stand with the flag and freedom, and teach our children the patriotism of unselfish devotion to the honor of our country.

Exit Judge Cantrell. The Kentucky State Journal tells him to create a vacancy to free the administration from the stigma of having a court of appeals magistrate as a pensioner of the state. The judge's health has rendered him unfit for further service on the bench. He was a bitter partisan in his best days, was Judge Cantrell, and he did much to bring opprobrium on the Kentucky ermine. He may have been sincere in his prejudice, but he was unfit for any public office, least of all one of judicial responsibility.

FOUND HIS SKULL CROOKED.

And the Hatter Lost One of His Best Customers.

"The machine that measures heads when hats are to be accurately fitted gives surprising revelations regarding the shape of people's skulls," says a Sixth street hatter to a St. Louis Globe-Democrat reporter.

"Ordinarily an odd shaped skull must be very badly formed indeed before it attracts attention, for the flesh and hair make all skulls seem of the same shape, except when a man's head is very long or very round, but the machine has little sections, fitting closely to the skull, and reproducing in dotted lines on a piece of paper, the exact outline. The ideal form of the skull is almost an oval, and we usually think of it as of that shape, so that when men come in and have their heads measured for a hat, they often look very much disgusted to find that their brain pans have a lump on one side or a hole on the other, or are about twice as thick behind the ears as they are across the forehead.

"I lost one customer, a Broadway merchant, who insisted on having his skull measured and his hat fitted. He had been buying hats of me for ten years, and always had trouble with a new hat, until it fitted itself to the shape of his head. One day he saw the machine and determined to be measured and fitted. I tried to jolly him out of the notion, for I knew there must be something outlandish in the shape of his cranium, and was afraid he would get angry, but he wouldn't be jolled, so at last I measured him, and of all the shapes you ever saw that was about the worst.

"The outline looked like that of a football half full of air, and with one side kicked in. He looked at his cranium map, said a very bad word, walked out of the store and never came back. I didn't blame him much for a man with a skull like that would naturally want to keep the fact to himself. He is dead now, poor fellow. Insane? No. The shapes of people's skulls don't seem to have anything to do with their brains."

A union of the factions opposed to Voliva was effected today which, it is said, is destined to overthrow him at the September church council. The clash came over the alleged opposition of Voliva to the calling of a general conference. Voliva declared he will take the fight into the United States court.

HOT AIR TREATMENT

Has Proven Its Worth in the Treatment of All Diseases.

I am using, in connection with the Osteopathic treatment, the Dry Hot Air treatment, and the great successes achieved with it demonstrate its efficacy.

In one form or another heat has been employed in treatment of disease from the earliest times and in every part of the world; but its use has become more general in later years than ever before—simply because its application and uses have become better known.

We have a better understanding of the physiological laws upon which the treatment is based, and have greatly improved the mechanical apparatus employed until now it is one of the most useful means at our disposal for the treatment of disease.

The treatment is stimulating to the whole system, every organ and function, and when used with the Osteopathic treatment forms the most rational cure in all sciences.

Especially are the treatments indicated in all diseases incident to the season, spring, tired, worn out and run down conditions, malaria, stomach, liver and bowels, and in asthma, rheumatic, and nervous conditions, headaches, lumbago and neuralgia.

I should be pleased to have you consult me at any time, and tell you just what Osteopathy will do in any specific case. It has done much for Paducah people you know well, to whom I shall gladly refer you, at any time.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

In order that the joint finance committee of the general council may have sufficient time, to carefully examine all bills for material furnished, and for claims of all kinds made against the city, it is imperative that bills be rendered to the city auditor, for each current month, not later than the Wednesday next preceding the Friday on which the joint finance committee meets for this purpose.

You are aware that no funds can be disbursed by the city except by allowance of the general council. The meeting of the council (lower board) is always held on the first Monday in each month. The joint finance committee meets on Friday afternoon preceding the council meeting, and in order that your accounts against the city may be properly examined and approved, they must be rendered to the auditor on the Wednesday next before the meeting of the joint finance committee. Such items as you may furnish after that day can be included in the succeeding month's business. Your bills should be accompanied with the department order authorizing the purchase. Bills for feed stuff, hay and fuel, must be accompanied by a certificate from the city scales.

It is to your interest to comply with this notice as bills rendered later than the above date, and under these requirements, will not be considered until the meeting of the following month.

Repeated disregard of this notice will cause instructions to be issued to department heads to buy only from persons willing to co-operate with the city's financial department.

Respectfully,
JOINT FINANCE COMMITTEE,
By C. H. Chamblin, Chairman.
ALEX. KIRKLAND, Auditor

Drink Belvedere Beer at meals and between meals, both as an aid to digestion and for the tonic properties of the hops it contains.

It is rich in food values from the Perfect Made Malt, and contains only enough alcohol to stimulate the digestive organs to healthy action.

You will never acquire, but overcome, the desire for strong drink by using Belvedere Beer, because its food values far exceed its stimulating properties.

Some One Stole Their Dinner.
But for the fortunate acquaintance with a farmer of the Mt. Pleasant neighborhood, Miss Hallie Ross, stenographer for Police Judge D. A. Cross, and three companions, might have gone hungry Sunday at noon. Miss Ross, Miss Lizzie Brenton and Messrs. Terry Thompson and Thomas Dosssett went to Mt. Pleasant, 13 miles from Paducah on the Mayfield road, to a Baptist foot washing yesterday. They carried several baskets of food for dinner, and leaving it in the surrey went to the foot washing. On their return the baskets had "vamosed" and after a search they found a farmer which one of the party knew, and secured dinner.

NOAH'S ARK The Bargain Store FOR GRANITEWARE

There are perhaps some Paducah housekeepers who do not fully appreciate the money-saving prices which prevail at Noah's Ark, or the immensity of our stock of housefurnishings, and these are the people we want to reach; there will be some interesting information in this space every day for the next week or two.

Take graniteware, for instance. Though we handle the best grade and highest priced granite cooking utensils on the market—qualities which cannot be bought anywhere else in Paducah—in the cheaper grades we can save you money enough to be worth your while on any piece you may wish to buy. Here is merely one item for you to compare with other stores' values:

A 14 quart Dish Pan, triple enamel coated, white inside and blue outside, seamless body and FIRST QUALITY, remember that. Other stores get as much as 75c for this dish pan, but our price is and has always been,

49c

So you see this is not "a special" in the ordinary sense of the word; it is a special value which we offer you every day in the year, just as hundreds of other articles contained in our three floors full of merchandise. When you are buying any kind of housefurnishings, by all means come to Noah's Ark—not first, but last we'll be satisfied with what you buy.

COUNTY SUPTS.

Will Meet to Arrange for Fall Meeting.

County school superintendents of the First district, thirteen in number, will meet May 30 in the office of County Superintendent S. J. Billington for one day's session. They will arrange a program for the First district educational association to meet at Mayfield on Thanksgiving, and will discuss matters pertaining to legislation for the benefit of county schools.

One important question which will be discussed is the proposed bill to have county boards to govern schools instead of a board of trustees in each school district. At present there are three trustees in each of the 53 districts in McCracken county. Under the new law, if it is adopted, there will be one trustee for each magisterial district, four in number for this county. The new bill seems to meet with general favor.

FIRST STREET SIDEWALK WILL BE BUILT HIGHER.

NO FINE DISTINCTIONS.

Magistrates Have Court Decision to Go By.

County Attorney Alben Barkley has received the full opinion of the court of appeals in the case of Magistrate Lane for working on the lower courts. In the reversal of the lower court, the court of appeals gives a clear-cut rebuff to a number of fallacies employed by persons interested in holding untenable positions. One answering a fine distinction made that a magistrate has a dual capacity, as an official and as a citizen, advises that as the remuneration for a justice of the peace is slight, a magistrate should resign to take advantage of contracting on the roads, and adds that they do not believe even a magistrate can draw so fine a distinction. The opinion deals with a number of like arguments and County Attorney Barkley believes that no trouble in distinguishing between having and not having a contract with the county, will be experienced in the future.

Taft was declared to be the best representative of Rooseveltian policies and entitled to still higher honors.

not until the doors of the stately

June 15 next will it be possible to

At the first conference only two American governments were represented—the United States and Mexico. If all the republics of the western hemisphere take advantage of the opportunity to participate in the proceedings of the second conference, there will be no less than 21 of the governments of the three Americas, represented, including delegations from Cuba, Haiti and Santo Domingo.

San Francisco, May 27.—The grand jury indicted six millionaires on charges of bribery and attempted bribery, and returned additional indictments against Ruef and Schmitz.
John Marin, Abe Ruef and Mayor
Schmitz were indicted on fourteen bribed fourteen of the supervisors in the sum of $750, to fix the gas rate for 1906 at 85 instead of 75 cents.

G. H. Umbson, J. E. Green, W. I.
Brobeck and Abraham Ruef were indicted on 14 counts, charging that they jointly attempted to bribe 14
of the supervisors in the sum of $1, 000 each to vote a trolley franchise to the Parkside Transit company.
Judge Coffey fixed bail at $1,000 on each of 126 counts contained in the 28 indictments.

leged bribery by officials of the Home Telephone company and by other persons will be resumed.

ARMY MULE

May Be Pensioned If This Measure Goes Through.

Washington, May 27.—A movement to pension the army mule and furnish him a home when his days of usefulness are over has been started, and if it receives the co-operation of humane societies a bill will be passed by the next congress prohibiting the sale of the obstinate "critters" owned by the government. Under present laws the army mule, along with all other government property must be condemned when useless and be sold to the highest bidder. Patriotic societies which have been organized to look after the welfare of veterans have been asked to join in the movement to provide at government expense quarters and feed for horses and mules which have served faithfully with Uncle Sam's army so as to save them from inhumane treatment.

Would Be a Politician.

The Ramsen Bell tells of an old German who had a boy of whom he was very proud, and decided to find out the trend of his mind. He adopted a novel method by which to test him. He slipped into the boy's room one morning and placed on his table
a bottle of whisky, a Bible and a silver dollar. "Now," said he, "when dot boy comes if he takes dot dollar he's going to be a beeznis man; if he takes dot Bible he's going to be a preacher, if he takes dot whisky he's no good, and going to be a drunkard." Then he hid behind the door to see which his son would choose. In came the boy whistling. He ran up to the table, picked up the Bible and put it under his arm, then snatched up the bottle, took two or three drinks picked up the dollar and put it in his pocket, and then went out, smacking his lips. The Dutchman poked his head out from behind the door and exclaimed: "Mein Gott! he is going to be a politician."

Verdict for Dr. Pierce

AGAINST THE Ladies' Home Journal.

Sending truth after a lie. It is an old maxim that "a lie will travel seven leagues while truth is getting its boots on," and no doubt hundreds of thousands of good people read the unwarranted and malicious attack upon Dr. R. V. Pierce and his "Favorite Prescription" published in the May (1904) number of the Ladies' Home Journal, with its great black display headings, who never saw the humble, groveling retraction, with its inconspicuous heading, published two months later. It was boldly charged in the slanderous and libelous article that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for the cure of woman's weaknesses and ailments, contained alcohol and other harmful ingredients. Dr. Pierce promptly brought suit against the publishers of the Ladies' Home Journal, for $200,000 damages. Dr. Pierce alleged that Mr. Bok, the editor, maliciously published the article containing such false and defamatory matter with the intent of injuring his business, furthermore, that no alcohol, or other harmful, or habit-forming, drugs are, or ever were, contained in his "Favorite Prescription"; that said medicine is made from native medicinal roots and contains no harmful ingredients whatever, and that Mr. Bok's malicious statement were wholly and absolutely false. In the retraction printed by said Journal they were forced to acknowledge that they had obtained analyses of "Favorite Prescription" from eminent chemists, all of whom certified that it did not contain alcohol or any of the alleged harmful drugs. These facts were also proven in the trial of the action in the Supreme Court. But the business of Dr. Pierce was greatly injured by the publication of the libelous article with its great display headings, while hundreds of thousands who read the wickedly defamatory article never saw the humble groveling retraction, set in small type and made as inconspicuous as possible. The matter was, however, brought before a jury in the Supreme Court of New York State which promptly rendered a verdict in Dr. Pierce's favor. Thus his traducers came to grief and their false slanders were refuted.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

At 3 o'clock in the morning Groves, in a discarded dressing gown of his, master's, opened the front door and peered cautiously out into the darkness. M. Louis, who was standing upon the doorstep, pushed past him into the hall.

"Your master has sent me to fetch some papers," he announced, displaying a bunch of keys. "I am sorry to disturb you like this, but the matter is important. Please bring me a cup of coffee into the library in half an hour."

Groves, who was sorely perplexed, stood with his back to the door which M. Louis had approached.

"Really, sir," he answered, "I scarcely know what to say. I am afraid that I cannot allow you to interfere with any of my master's property in his absence."

M. Louis held out the keys. "It is an awkward situation, of course. Your master did not tell you the reason of his sudden departure, I suppose."

"Not a word, sir."

"There can be no harm in telling you this much, at any rate," M. Louis continued smoothly. "Your master, through no fault of his own, got mixed up in a very unpleasant affair in Paris, and he will have to appear in the courts there. I am his friend and wish to do all that I can to help him. We have been talking the matter over, and I have strongly advised him to produce some papers which I think will help him materially. The police officer in whose charge he is would not allow him to return, so he handed me his keys and asked me to fetch them. I can assure you that I am your master's friend and wish to do all that I can to help him. If he had not trusted me, he would not have given me his keys, which no doubt you recognize."

Groves reluctantly stood on one side. "I suppose I must let you in, sir," he said, "but I wish that the master had sent me a line."

"We had neither pencil nor paper," M. Louis said, "and the affair was urgent. I must be back in Norwich by 8 o'clock."

"I will prepare the coffee, sir," Groves said, turning away. "If you require more light the switches are behind the door."

"Very good," M. Louis said. "You need not have the slightest anxiety. I am here on your master's behalf."

Groves hesitated and looked for a moment curiously around the room. He seemed as though he had something else to say, but checked himself at the last moment and withdrew. M. Louis drew a little breath of relief.

He did not immediately proceed to work. He threw off his overcoat and lit a cigarette. His fingers were steady enough, but he was conscious of an unwelcome sense of excitement. He was face to face with destiny. He had played before for great stakes, but never such as these. A single false step, an evil turn in the wheel of fortune, spelled death, and he was afraid to die. He moved to the sideboard. Everything there was as he had left it. He poured out some brandy and drank it off.

With fresh courage he moved to the safe, which stood in the corner of the room. It must be there, if anywhere, that this precious document lay. He tried his keys one by one. At last he found the right one. The great door swung slowly open.

He was spared all anxiety. There on the top of a pile of legal looking documents, leases, title deeds and the like, was a long envelope, and across it in Duncombe's sprawling writing these few words, "Trusted to me by Miss Foynton—Sept. 4th."

He grasped it in his fingers and tore open the envelope. As he read the single page of closely written writing his eyes seemed almost to protrude. He gave a little gasp. No wonder there were those who reckoned this single page of manuscript worth a great fortune. Every sentence, every word, told its own story. It was a page of the world's history.

Then a strange thing happened. Some part of him rebelled against the instinct which prompted him to carefully fold and place in his breast pocket this wonderful find of his. His nerves seemed suddenly frozen in his body. There was a curious numb sensation at the back of his neck which forbade him to turn round. His hands shook, his teeth chattered. The sweat of death was upon his forehead and despair in his heart. He had heard nothing, seen nothing, yet he knew that he was no longer alone.

When at last he turned round he turned his whole body. The muscles of his neck were numb still, his knees shook and his face was ghastly. M. Louis of the Cafe Montmartre, brave of tongue and gallant of bearing, had suddenly degenerated of a family whose nobles had made gay the seafolds of the Place de la Republique, covered in his place.

It was the worst upon which he looked with chattering teeth, but without surprise. The door of the inner room was open, and upon the threshold stood Toquer, small, dark and saturnine—Toquer, with something which glittered in his hand, so that M. Louis, already the prey of a diseased and ghastly imagination, felt the pain of the bullet in his heart. On an easy chair by the fireside Henri de Bergillie was lounging, with a queer smile upon his lips.

"My friend," he said quietly, though the scorn which underlay his words seemed to bite the air, "you have solved for us a double problem. First, how to account for the absence of our host, and, secondly, how to open that very formidable looking safe. You will be so good as to place upon the table that document which you hold in your hands."

For a single second M. Louis hesitated. Some lingering vestige of a courage, purely hereditary, showed him in one lightning-like flash how at least he might carry with him to a swift grave some vestige of his ruined self respect.

A traitor to his old friends, he might at least keep faith with the new. He had time to destroy. Even the agonies of death might last long enough to complete the task. But the impulse was only momentary. He shuddered afresh at the thought that he might have yielded to it. He threw it upon the table.

The vicomte rose to his feet, glanced through the closely written page with something of the same excitement which had inspired its recent possessor, and carefully buttoned it up in his breast pocket. Then he turned once more to the man who stood before them, broken and trembling.

London Paupers.

London, May 2.—London paupers live in luxury that has been denied even to King Edward.

Few baronial mansions or castles of knights or belted earls rival in magnificence the splendors of the workhouses of the London borough of Hammersmith.

This fact was revealed today by the report of the local government board, which has been investigating poor law expenditures.

The British taxpayers contemplate the figures in sheer amazement. The entrance to the building is between handsome screens of plate glass. One of the floors is of tiled mosaic work, surrounded by a delft of encaustic ware of the most expensive type. Every part of the building is brilliantly lighted with electricity.

A system of duplicate wiring had been installed.

Counsel for the Rate Payers' association said this system had been suggested recently for Buckingham palace, but it was rejected on the ground of expense.

The dining hall is almost baronial in style and equal to anything in any of the great colleges of the country.

The light to this room is softly diffused by means of stashed glass windows.

The site and the building cost over $1,300,000, which is equivalent, so far as has been ascertained, to the rate of $1,675 per bed. This is far greater than the cost of many houses occupied by hard working families.

In this magnificence the Hamersmith paupers live in idleness. They sleep in airy bedrooms, with lace curtains and tinted walls. Soft carpets sink underneath their feet.

They loiter in richly upholstered divans in smoking rooms. Softly shaded lamps furnish light in spacious reading rooms.

Other interesting features included the cost of the cooking apparatus, $15 per pauper, while the annual cost of electricity is also $15 per individual.

MAN WHO SUEED BEECHER SERIOUSLY ILL IN PARIS

Paris, May 27.—The condition of Theodore Tilton is still serious, and he is so weakened that there is practically no hope of his recovery. In 1874 Tilton preferred serious charges against Henry Ward Beecher, who had been his pastor and intimate friend, and demanded civil damages in the sum of $100,000. After the domestic tragedy which wrecked his career Tilton came to Paris, where he since has lived the solitary existence of a broken hearted man.

A Virginia Princess.

Virginia and indeed the whole south, has contributed quite its full quota of brilliant writers to the gallery of American immortals. It is interesting to note that during the 40 years of its history, Lippincott's Magazine has brought out the first offerings of a large number of southern writers. And now—issued most appropriately while the Jamestown exposition is now calling attention to the debt which our whole land owes to Virginia—comes Miss Kate Goode's dramatic poem, "A Princess of Virginia." With fine dramatic fire and splendid poetic conception, this really brilliant play in five acts deals with Pocahontas, Rolfe, Smith, Powhatan, and others. It is sure to be hailed as a notable contribution to the literature of the south, written as it is, by a Virginian. The cover contains an interesting portrait of Pocahontas.

A complete novel by Frank Danby, eight short stories by writers of national reputation, and a full complement of articles, poems and humor, make up this unusually rich number of Lippincott's—the June issue. Over 175 pages.

WHICH WAY WILL STEVE ADAMS GO?

His Testimony Will be Important in Haywood Case

It is Said Threats of Extradition and Other Influences Have Been Invoked.

ACCUSED OF OTHER CRIMES

Boise, Idaho, May 27.—Steve Adams, miner, accused of more than one murder and awaiting his second trial on a charge of killing a miner named Tyler, might possibly be the individual around whom, next to Harry Orchard, the Haywood-Moyer-Pettibone cases will revolve, and his importance as a witness in the Haywood trial may be second only to that of Assassin Orchard. Which way will Adams go? Will he yield to the pressure of the state and corroborate Orchard, or will he remain steadfast to his statement that his admissions of guilt and implication of Haywood Moyer and Pettibone were falsehoods wrung from him by Detectives McPartland, who promised him reward and immunity from dire punishment which he feared might be put upon him, notwithstanding his protestations of innocence?

The state of Idaho and the Colorado Mine Owners' association assume that Adams is guilty of more than one murder, and strong pressure is being used, and alluring inducements offered to him if he will give testimony substantiating Orchard and aiding in fixing guilt of murder upon the chief officials of the Western Federation of Miners.

Retracts Confession.

When the Shoshone county jury at Wallace six weeks ago stood seven to five against sending Adams to the gallows, he told his friends "he would rather die like a dog than live like a skunk." He meant then that he would never again succumb to the influences which impelled him to make a confession tending to establish a conspiracy to dynamite and murder which was directed from the Miners' Federation headquarters in Denver.

On the witness stand in his own defense he unqualifiedly retracted his confession to McPartland, thus weakening the cases against Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone, leaving the state with no known corroborator by a co-conspirator of Harry Orchard.

This was a serious blow to the prosecution and ever since then secret and powerful screws have been used on Adams.

Extradition Threat Rumored. It is reported in the Idaho papers, which seem to be on the inside of the prosecution plans, that Buckley Wells, former Adjutant General of Colorado, has been talking with Adams, and other reports are that the imprisoned miner has been threatened with extradition to Colorado on a murder charge.

The prosecutors of the miners aver that Adams was the man who shot and killed Arthur Collins, manager of the Smuggler Union Mine at Telluride. Collins was sitting in his home and an assassin killed him with a shotgun, firing a charge of buckshot through the window.

A Live Wire.

The young son of an electrician was spending his first summer in the country, at the home of his grandparents, says Lippincott's Magazine. One morning, while playing in the garden, he found a small yellow "bug," and as his grandfather had promised to take him fishing that afternoon, he decided to catch it to use as bait. A few seconds later a most astonishing commotion, considering the size of the cause thereof, arose in the garden, and grandmother hurried out from the house.

"Why, what is the matter child?" she asked, taking the little fellow in her arms.

He raised a tear-stained face. "I don't know," was the reply. "I was catching a pretty yellow bug, and must have touched a live wire."

A Correct Answer.

His Majesty's Inspector was examining a class of boys on the subject of "Birds." Having received correct answers to the questions relating to feathers, bill, feet and wings, he put the question, "What is it a bird can do which I am unable to do?" "Fly," was the answer he hoped to get.

For several moments the boys thought, but gave no answer. At last one held up his hand.

"Well, my lad, what is it?" "Lay an egg, sir," said the boy—London Bystander.

A man perceiving an acquaintance who was a terrible bore coming toward him crossed over the road. But the bore saw him and cutting off his retreat asked him in an injured tone why he was avoiding him.

"Well, you see," replied the other "I am a very wearisome person by nature, and I didn't wish to inconvenience you."—Nos. 101818.

Priest's Body Found Hidden in Trunk Left by Boarders With Landlady

New York, May 27.—Rev. Father Kasper, of the Armenian Apostolic church of Hoboken, N. J., was murdered in this city some time last week. The body was found today in a trunk which had been left as security for their room rent by two Greeks who three weeks ago engaged a furnished room of Mrs. Henry Sherer, who occupied the third floor of a tenement at 333 West Thirty-seventh street.

Three weeks ago Mrs. Annie Sherer, rented a room to two men. Last Wednesday the rent was not forthcoming but the two Greek lodgers told her she was amply secured by their trunk. The following morning the men disappeared, and today the trunk was broken open.

To her horror Mrs. Sherer found it to contain the badly decomposed body of a man. The body was in a kneeling posture with his head bound against the knees by a heavy strap passed over the back of the neck and buckled under the shins. It was later identified as that of Father Kasper.

Father Kasper was carrying a small leather bag in which his collections were placed. He was a familiar figure in Greek and Armenian circles here. It is believed he was murdered for money he carried.

The autopsy revealed that the priest probably had been drugged and placed, while still alive in the trunk, there to suffocate. His neck and one arm were broken but these were apparently not the cause of death.

Storms Saturday and Sunday nights did little damage on the river though they made navigation for the boats dangerous, and kept night watchmen busy watching the ropes. The wind Saturday night was stronger than on Sunday night but owing to its direction, was not as severe on the river as the latter. Saturday night's wind was from the west and blew over the shipping on this side of the river, but last night it was a downstream wind. Trees are reported blown down at different points.
